Letter Of Recommendation

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Dhruv Joysar, who worked with us as a Growth Intern at LitStudio. During his tenure, Dhruv demonstrated strong analytical ability, initiative, and a thoughtful approach to problem-solving.

He contributed to key growth initiatives by analyzing user journeys, identifying friction points in onboarding and engagement, and suggesting practical, data-driven improvements. Dhruv consistently went beyond assigned responsibilities, showing curiosity and a willingness to explore new ideas to improve product and growth outcomes.

He is quick to learn, receptive to feedback, and able to adapt in a fast-paced startup environment. Additionally, he communicates clearly, takes ownership of his work, and delivers tasks reliably.

Based on my experience working with him, I am confident that Dhruv will continue to grow and add value in any role he takes on. I strongly recommend him for opportunities in growth, product, and related domains.
